

Lesbian and Gay Chorus of Washington, DC Day

January 24, 2009

A PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

WHEREAS, the Lesbian and Gay Chorus of Washington, DC (LGCW) is a 26 voice, non-audition, consensus-based community chorus; and

WHEREAS, for 25 years, the LGCW has featured a broad repertoire of choral music that affirms social justice, gay and lesbian pride, cultural diversity humor; and

WHEREAS, the LGCW is a charter member of the GLBT Art Consortium that builds bridges within and beyond the GLBT arts community; and

WHEREAS, LGCW provides complimentary tickets to persons with living with HIV/AIDS, cancer, and others who cannot easily access the arts; and

WHEREAS, I invite you to learn more about and support our struggle for full Voting Rights in Congress:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, THE MAYOR OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, do hereby proclaim January 24, 2009, as "LESBIAN AND GAY CHORUS OF WASHINGTON, DC DAY" in Washington, DC, and call upon all the residents of this great city to join me in commending this organization that supports the performing arts.

Adrian M. Fenty
Mayor, District of Columbia
